Milo's Story

Milo was discovered as a puppy in New Orleans in 2021. He was all alone, abandoned after Hurricane Ida devastated the city. But Milo was saved by a pet rescue organization and brought to Colorado for a second chance to find a home.

After a long trip, Milo moved in temporarily with a foster family. They made an advertisement hoping to find Milo a permanent home. Luckily, Kylie saw the advertisement for Milo. Kylie met Milo and his foster parents at a dog park and it was love at first sight! Kylie brought Milo home and the two began a new life together.

Kylie and Milo love to go on walks, hikes and camping trips. Milo loves playing with other dogs and carrying the largest sticks he can find. He is known for being snuggly and for his very perky ears. He's very happy now.

Special thanks to our friends at The Mutt Dog for introducing us to Milo! The Mutt Dog is a lifestyle brand with a mission to help get more dogs rescued and provide support to shelters and other non-profits serving dogs. Head to themuttdog.com or follow them on Instagram (@themuttdog) to learn more!
