

Saturday at the Food Pantry

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition ladled	to serve or scoop something, like soup, with a big spoon called a ladle hunger	the feeling you get when your body needs food whispered	to speak very softly and quietly plenty	having more than enough of something nutrients	the parts of food that help your body grow and stay healthy sensible	making good and smart choices because it is practical and reasonable groceries	the food and other items you buy at the store to use at home factory	a big building where machines are used to make or put together products