

No Monkeys, No Chocolate

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD blossom: a flower that grows on a fruit tree concentrate: to think about something gnaw: to bite or chew over and over again hyper: very excited, has lots of energy, wild maggots: insects that look like small worms; they come from a fly pollen: the yellow dust a plant makes pulp: the soft, inside part of a fruit or vegetable sap: the liquid inside a plant; can be watery or thick and sticky like syrup shoot: the part of a new plant that is just beginning to grow above ground tropical rainforest: area of land near the equator that has very tall trees, lots of rain, and lots of plants and animals

