

Moonshot: The Flight of Apollo 11

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD bolts: long pieces of metal used to help hold something in place craters: large, round holes in the ground hatch: a small door or opening in a ship or spaceship gauges: instruments used to measure something, like temperature or pressure ignite: to start burning; to set on fire orbit: to travel around something in a curved path plains: large areas of flat land with no trees stories: the different floors or levels of a building valve: a device that controls the flow of liquid or gas by opening and closing

Velcro: a material that can fastened or stuck to itself

