

The Patchwork Garden

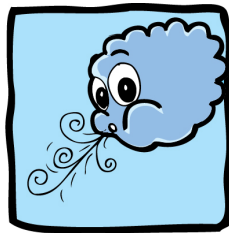

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

address: words and numbers used to tell where a building is breeze: a calm or gentle wind cement: a gray powder mixed with water that hardens to make concrete, like the sidewalk fertilizer: something that helps plants grow patch: a small part of something that is different from all the parts around it weeds: plants that grow very quickly and kill other plants sprouting: growing, making new leaves or buds trowel: a small shovel, something you use to dig vitamins: things in food that help you stay healthy zucchini: a dark green vegetable that is long and smooth, kind of like a cucumber

